

Fourth Edition.
THE LATEST

GLINTS FROM GOTHAM.

Meanness, Meanderings and Monkey-shines of the Metropolitans.

A POLICEMAN'S SUICIDE.
Special to the Star.

New York, June 15.—George McLaughlin, for many years past a member of the Jersey City police force, committed suicide yesterday afternoon at his residence on York street, in that city, by shooting himself. His wife was committed to a lunatic asylum several months ago, and since then one of his children has been very sick.

KILLED BY A FALLING PLATFORM.
Randolph Plattischer, aged seven years, crawled under a platform during a picnic at Voight's Union Park, at Newark, yesterday when the rainstorm came on, and a crowd rushed on the platform, breaking it down and crushing Plattischer to death.

THREE THOUSAND EMIGRANTS.
Over three thousand immigrants arrived from Europe yesterday, and were landed at Castle Garden.

EAST SIDE FLOWER MISSION.
The East Side Flower Mission, formerly in Livingston street, is brightening many tenement homes with flowers and growing plants. Eighteen hundred bouquets and 200 plants were distributed last week.

BREAKFAST TO BOOTH.
A breakfast is given to-day in honor to Edwin Booth who sails for Europe. The following are among the guests: Lester Wallace, Joseph Jefferson, Jervis McEntee, William Warren, the Boston comedian; George Edgar, Judge Hilton, John T. Ford, Judge Shea, Robert B. Roosevelt, Gen. Di Cesnola, J. Q. A. Ward, P. T. Barnum, Judge C. P. Daly, Prof. W. F. Weir, Lawrence Barrett, Wm. Winter, E. C. Stedman, Noah Brooks, Cyrus W. Field, Constant Mayer, Abram S. Hewitt.

A SUMMER STORM.

Disastrous Breaks Along the Miami Canal.

Whirlwinds, Washouts and Barns Burned By Lightning.

MIAMI CANAL AQUEDUCT.
Special to the Star.

MIDDLETOWN, O., June 15.—The aqueduct on the Miami Canal, five miles south of this place, gave way this morning, overflowing the country and destroying the crops and doing a great deal of damage to farmers living in that section of the country. A canal boat named Goldsmith Maid loaded heavily with lumber was broken in two about three miles north of this place. Loss estimated at $800.

DAMAGE AT DAYTON.
DAYTON, O., June 15.—The storm of Sunday and last evening did incalculable damage in this neighborhood. The lowlands have been flooded, to the destruction of crops, and washouts have occurred on the railroad.

The railroad between here and Cincinnati was in many places a foot under water, and for a while all telegraphic communication was cut off.

The C. H. & D. train, due at 11:50 last night, arrived at 2:15 this morning. Conductor Thomas reported that there were no washouts on the C. H. & D. Road, but that the track being in many places covered with water, and in some places trees having been blown across it, he was forced to move slowly.

CANAL BREAK AT FRANKLIN.
FRANKLIN, O., June 15.—The heavy rains last evening caused great damage in the southern part of Montgomery and through Warren and Butler Counties. The heavy rush of waters from the hills along the canal in the vicinity of the "Narrows," near the Franklin hydraulic dam, broke the banks of the canal and did great damage.

BARN BURNED BY LIGHTNING.
ELPORADO, O., June 15.—During the heavy thunder storm Sunday evening two barns near here were struck by lightning and burned to the ground with all their contents. One of the barns was owned by R. J. Robinson and the other by Oliver Gates. The loss is estimated at about $4,000.

TRAIN DITCHED THIS MORNING.
COLUMBUS, June 15.—A washout this side of Cincinnati, delayed the Little Miami passenger train, due here at 1 o'clock this morning, for six hours. The train was partly ditched, but no one was injured. Another train was made up and sent East from this point.

NEAR NOBLESVILLE, IND.
NOBLESVILLE, IND., June 15.—A tornado near here last night created dreadful havoc. The Methodist Church was completely destroyed, as was the house of Samuel Miller, just south of the village.

Mr. Miller, his wife and four children were all injured. Mrs. Miller perhaps fatally. The house of J. M. Little, southeast of the village, was also completely destroyed, and all the members of the family badly injured. Mr. Little having all his ribs on the left side broken. The German Lutheran Church was blown down and the bell carried fifty feet away. David Gerber's house was blown over, and Mrs. Gerber, an old lady of seventy years, was probably fatally injured; Wm. Gerber, her son, was also seriously injured. Marion Harbaugh, while on the Nobleville Pike, on the way to Cicero, was badly bruised. Many other houses were destroyed.

National Associated Press to the Star.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 15.—In addition to the terrible destruction at Eau Claire, Grand Rapids has suffered to the extent of over $25,000 from the flood. The main business portion of the city on the island is only reached by boats. Several buildings have been swept away. The rear part of the store of Brundage & Ferguson was swept away, carrying with it Ferguson, who was drowned. Body not recovered.

SHELBYVILLE, IND., June 15.—Much damage was done here by yesterday's storm. The roof of the dwelling of Samuel Montgomery, a prominent farmer, was blown away, causing a loss of $500. Abraham Clarke, a farm hand, became entangled in some limbs and flying rails and was carried thirty feet into the air. When he dropped to the ground he was injured internally, and will probably die.

MIDDLETOWN, OHIO, June 15.—The very heavy rains last night filled all streams to overflowing, and much damage was done. The Gregory's Creek aqueduct on the canal was washed out at 11 o'clock, and the one near Amanda is in danger.

COLFAX, IND., June 15.—A terrible tornado passed between Colfax and Frankfort, unroofing houses, barns, etc. Four persons were killed and many others wounded. Two black clouds came together from opposite directions. All the doctors from Frankfort were summoned to attend the wounded.

RUSHVILLE, IND., June 15.—One of the most terrific wind and rain-storms ever known raged here yesterday. Lives, property and crops will suffer. The house of Rufus Hinchman was blown down and his wife fatally hurt.

LAFAYETTE, IND., June 15.—The loss from yesterday's storm by destruction of bridges, fences and crops can not be estimated. Many streets are almost ruined and trains are delayed on all the roads.

LAUREL, IND., June 15.—The storm created great havoc hereabouts. The wife of William Graham, living five miles west of here, was very badly injured, and his twelve-year-old child was killed and another badly injured by the falling of his house. Several other dwellings were blown down and persons injured.

WASHINGTON.

Spirited Spat Between Frye and Conger.

Arrival of General Garfield This Morning.

Special to the Star.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The indications all point to an adjournment of Congress to-morrow in spite of the filibustering lately resorted to.

ARRIVAL OF GEN. GARFIELD.

Gen. Garfield arrived from Cleveland this morning. To-night he will be serenaded at the Riggs House by the New York and Ohio Republican Clubs, and the Veteran and Republican Central Clubs. To-morrow he will be lunched by the Association of the Army of the Cumberland.

SEYMOUR WILL ACCEPT.
Mr. Jordan, Tilden's financial agent, arrived in Washington this morning. He says Seymour will accept the nomination if tendered him, but that his nomination will be a sure defeat for the Democrats.

FRYE AND CONGER EPISODE.
An exciting scene occurred between Frye and Conger this morning. The latter had reflected on the sugar bill, of which Frye is the author, as calculated to benefit foreigners at the expense of American laborers.

Frye immediately jumped to his feet and said that every word Conger had uttered was false. The Democrats applauded Frye's remarks heartily and the members gathered closely around the two.

Afterwards Frye, at the suggestion of his friends, endeavored to have his remarks expunged from the record, and the Speaker granted the request.

SPARKS FROM SOCIETY.
Mrs. General Sherman, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Lizzie, has gone to St. Catharines, Canada. Mrs. Sherman's health is not good, and she will remain away about a month in the hope of its improvement.

During her absence her daughter, Mrs. Lieutenant Thacker, will keep house at the family residence. Lieutenant Thacker expects to be ordered to sea in August. The French Minister, M. Outrey, and his wife expect to entertain largely at Newport this summer. Among those who will be their guests are Sir Edward Thornton and his daughters, the Princess Louise and Prince Leopold. Count Lewenhaupt, the Swedish Minister, and his wife think of spending the summer at Lancaster, Mass.

Mr. Allen, the Hawaiian Minister, has taken his family to Bangor, Me., on a visit to Mrs. Allen's mother.

General Garfield will preside at the Welsh Eisteddfod to be held at Scranton, Pa., this year. General Garfield, it is said, is himself of Welsh extraction.

EX-CONGRESSMAN DODD AND LAMISON, OF OHIO, ARE HERE ON A VISIT.

RETIRED AND CONFIRMED.
National Associated Press to the Star.
WASHINGTON, June 15.—General E. D. Townsend, Adjutant General of the Army, will be placed on the retired list to-day. He will be succeeded by General Richard C. Drum, at present Adjutant General.

The Senate confirmed James Longstreet, of Georgia, Minister Resident of the United States at Turkey. The nomination of General Longstreet was confirmed without discussion, and by a very decisive vote of 89 against 3.

STARLING SLAIN.

Death of Ratcliffe's Victim at Hopkinsville.

Attempt to Assassinate an Editorial Lawyer.

Up Salt River in Advance of the Election.

TWO MEN DROWNED.
Special to the Star.

IOWA CITY, Ia., June 15.—Two men were drowned in the Iowa River at this place during the past twenty-four hours. Last evening Gustav Krans, about 55 years old, was drowned while bathing. He was at one time a man of much wealth, the owner of a large sugar refinery in Prussia.

George, son of James M. Shiel, 20 years of age, was drowned yesterday. In company with another young man he attempted to cross the river on a floating log.

HE'LL STEAL NO MORE SUGAR.
UTICA, N. Y., June 15.—Anna E. Curtiss, aged seventeen, a deaf mute, of Watertown, was instantly killed in a dumb waiter at the deaf-mute institute in Rome yesterday. She got into the water to steal sugar from the pantry.

BATHER DIED THAN LIVE.
SEPO, ILL., June 15.—About 6 o'clock the other evening, while George Brown, of this place, was crossing Thompson's lake in a skiff, and when about a quarter of a mile from shore, said to his companions that he would rather die than live, and leaped into the water, sinking immediately. His body was recovered.

KILLED BY SUNSTROKE.
PEORIA, ILL., June 15.—Several persons have been prostrated by heat and one fatal case of sunstroke occurred, the victim being a carpenter named F. G. Fowell. He lived about half an hour after being sunstruck. He has been in the city but a short time, his home being in Ithaca, N. Y.

COULD NOT SEE HER BOWTIE.
FOND DU LAC, Wis., June 15.—Mrs. Henry Geisler was arrested yesterday for setting fire to her husband's butcher shop. Policemen Reeves caught her in the act of firing the building, and she was behind the bars before the fire had gained a decent headway.

PREACHER ARRESTED FOR FORGERY.
ROCKFORD, ILL., June 15.—The Rev. Dr. George W. Cadwell, of Durand, was held to bail yesterday afternoon for the forgery of a real estate instrument, the consideration of which was $1,000. His bonds are placed at the same figure.

AN EDITORIAL LAWYER SHOT.
UTICA, N. Y., June 15.—F. C. Fadner, a lawyer, and editor of the Watchword, a temperance paper, was shot while leaving his office in Rome at midnight. He is under indictment for bigamy, on complaint of an Ohio wife. The injury is not fatal. Fadner is suspected of shooting himself. He does not suspect wife No. 1.

A JILTED LOVER'S SUICIDE.
DECATUR, ILL., June 15.—Last night, near Mt. Zion, a young man named Q. W. Baum, son of Israel Baum, shot himself through the temple and died. He was in love with a girl residing near his home. She rejected his suit and he killed himself.

DEATH OF COLONEL STARLING.
HOPKINSVILLE, KY., June 15.—Colonel E. A. Starling, the Republican candidate for Sheriff, who was shot by Jesse Ratcliffe at Creighton last Saturday, was brought to Hopkinsville, his home, on a freight train Saturday night and died yesterday. Colonel Starling was fifty-three years of age, was an Elder in the Presbyterian Church, and was a Mason and Knight of Honor. He was buried to-day. Ratcliffe is in jail.

ANOTHER ONE WEARY OF BREATH.
PARIS, KY., June 15.—Yesterday morning at 7 o'clock a soiled dove named Fanny Richardson attempted to commit suicide by jumping into Stover Creek from the Mayville & Lexington Railroad Bridge. A colored man pulled her out of the water, but she immediately repeated the attempt, with no better success.

A SALT RIVER VICTIM.
HIGH GROVE, KY., June 15.—A young man named Richard Hall was drowned in Salt River, near the residence of Jas. A. Clark, on Sunday afternoon, about 5 o'clock. He, with others, was in the river swimming when the accident occurred. This is the third victim for this whirlpool.

ARREST OF AN ARKANSAS MURDERER.
National Associated Press to the Star.
LOUISVILLE, June 15.—Flourney Barbour was arrested in this city yesterday for the murder of Jillson Bowles in Watson, Arkansas, years ago. At that time he was released on bail, which he forfeited.

JIM CURRIE'S CASE.

MARSHALL, TEX., June 15.—The jury in the Currie case was completed at 3 p. m. yesterday, and Nat. A. Harvey was called to the witness stand to testify on the part of the State. Harvey was the proprietor of the White House saloon, at which the tragedy occurred, and saw and heard all that was said and done. He testified that Currie fired the first shot that killed Porter; that he saw no weapon in the other party's hands, nor any attempt to draw one, either before or after the fatal shot was fired; that Currie was staggering drunk at the time, and fired two shots at Maurice Barry more and one at Porter in quick succession. Dr. Eliza Johnson, who attended Porter, also testified. Maurice Barrymore was next called and examined in chief. He substantially corroborated Harvey's testimony. His testimony continues to-day.

COLUMBUS CURRENTS.

GOV. FOSTER—THE CANTON CRIMINALS—A MUTE MARRIAGE, &c.

SPECIAL TO THE STAR.
COLUMBUS, June 15.—Gov. Foster has accepted an invitation to be present at Painesville the 3d of July, the occasion being the unveiling of a statue. He left for Washington City to-day at noon.

Extra efforts are now being made in behalf of and by the friends of the Canton murderers, but so far as learned the Governor does not feel disposed to interfere in their cases.

Among the prominent Republicans in the city for consultation and the organization of the Republican State Executive Committee, are Dr. Scott, of Warren; Gen. C. H. Grosvenor and N. Warren, of Athens; William Howard Neff and W. S. Capper, of Cincinnati, and General S. S. Warner, of Wellington.

Wesley Frazier, a farmer near Bridgeport, Belmont County, and Miss Mary Pickrel, a teacher at the Institution for Deaf and Dumb, both deaf mutes, were married at the Institution this morning.

THE RIVER RISING

And Five Million Bushels of Coal Coming Down.

Special to the Star.

PITTSBURG, June 15.—Noon.—The river and coal men are as busy as nailers to-day. It rained all night and advances from the upper rivers indicate at least twelve feet here within the next twenty-four hours. The towboats that were laid up by low water are hurrying into port. About all the coal afloat will get away on this rise. There are about five million bushels to go and of this three million bushels is for Cincinnati. Tows began leaving last evening. The river is eight feet six inches and rising three inches per hour.

Another Steamer Collision.

National Associated Press to the Star.

New York, June 15.—The steamer Queen reports that on June 13th, 300 miles east in Sandy Hook during a dense fog she came in collision with the steamer Anchora, from New York for Glasgow. Both vessels were seriously damaged. For a while it was thought both would go down. The Queen's bow was stove. The Anchora took off all the passengers of the Anchora, 180 in number, and brought them to this port. The Anchora is still outside waiting for assistance. She has twenty-eight feet of water in her hold.

Tennessee Pencil Pushers.

Special to the Star.

NASHVILLE, June 15.—A large delegation of the editorial fraternity left here at 5:15 this morning to attend the Tennessee Press Association, which assembles at Jackson to-morrow. The attendance will be large, and the proceedings promise to be entertaining.

TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.

Afternoon Exercises and Evening Programme.

The National Temperance Convention met at Odd Fellows' Hall, corner of Fourth and Home streets at 12 o'clock to-day with about eighty delegates present and Hon. G. W. Ross, a member of the Convention, presiding. After the opening exercises the roll of delegates was made up, and the remainder of the afternoon spent in hearing the reports of officers and committees.

A reception will be held in Robinson's Opera-house this evening, commencing at 8 o'clock. The reception address will be delivered by Mr. Z. Getchell, Grand Worthy Patriarch S. of T. of Ohio. Response by Hon. George W. Ross, of Ontario, Most Worthy Patriarch of the National Division of North America. Followed by Hon. Neal Dow, of Portland, Me.; Hon. B. D. Townsend, of South Carolina; Rev. Wm. Searls, D.D., of Auburn, N. Y.; General S. F. Cary, and others.

Mr. E. MacDonald, of Brooklyn, N. Y., will sing "The Old Oaken Bucket" and other choice selections.

A general Union Temperance meeting will be held at St. Paul M. E. Church, corner of Seventh and Smith streets, on Thursday evening, the 17th inst., at 8 o'clock. Speakers—Hon. Neal Dow, of Maine; Rev. A. W. Cummings, D.D., of Wallingford, New York; Prof. J. S. Bliss, of Wisconsin; Hon. J. N. Stearns, of New York, and others.

Prof. Marcellus J. Maxwell will have charge of the music. Seats free, and all are cordially invited.

To-morrow afternoon about forty carriages will convey the delegates through the city and suburbs. The Highland House, Walnut Hills, Mt. Auburn, Clifton and Spring Grove will be visited. Many of the citizens on the route will raise flags on their homes in honor of the guests. The headquarters of the Convention will be at the Gibson House.

This organization was instituted in the city of New York September 29, 1842, and is now composed of a National Division, fifteen Grand Divisions, and nearly three thousand subordinate Divisions, embracing every State and nearly every Territory of the Union; also Canada, Great Britain, and the Islands of both the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, and it has enrolled more than three millions of persons.

At the Convention to-day nearly every State and Territory and many of the British Provinces are represented.

Additional Courts.

COMMON PLEAS.

Before Judge Smith.—Buchanan Robinson against Williams, King & Co., suit to recover $300 alleged to have been sustained by reason of the defendant selling about 60,000 pounds of dried apples to the defendant, which the defendant claimed were good Tennessee apples. The plaintiff claims that he examined the apples in the defendant's store in Nashville, and told the defendant to ship him two car-loads of the kind he had examined; that the defendant sent him an inferior quality of dried apples, and that he has been damaged in the sum of $300.

The defendants claim that the apples shipped to the plaintiff were the same as the apples he examined at their store in Nashville. Case in progress. John Johnson for plaintiff; Storer & Harrison, contra.

Briggelman against Tracey. In this case, stated in a former report, the jury returned a verdict for the defendant, Warren Higley for plaintiff, Alex. Long for defendant.

PROBATE.
The will of Hiram DeCamp was admitted to probate.

MILLERS' EXPOSITION.

Fine Display of Amateur Baking.

The great attraction at the exhibition to-day, was the display in the contest for prizes offered by the Commissioners for amateur baking. The prizes, which have already been announced, were valuable. One hundred and thirty-one ladies of the city and vicinity, entered into the contest.

The articles were all in place on a table in Horticultural Hall at 9 a. m., and will remain on exhibition until 10 p. m. The judges were Col. Sidney D. Maxwell, the Everston and Geo. Keppeler, who examined the different displays between 12 and 1 o'clock and then made their report.

The entries were as follows:
No. 1—Ellen Line, rolls, cake and bread.
No. 2—Mrs. Kidney, No. 464 West Ninth street, sponge cake, fruit cake and small cakes.

No. 3—Mrs. C. P. Buchanan, Newport, Ky., sponge cake.
No. 4—Mrs. L. T. Anderson, Bond Hill, Ohio, two loaves of wheat bread.

No. 5—Mrs. C. K. Kemper, Walnut Hills, pound cake.
No. 6—Mrs. J. E. Stone, Covington, one loaf bread.

No. 7—Mrs. C. Gerz, city, bread.
No. 8—Mrs. Robinson, pound-cake, wheat bread, jelly-cake, sponge-cake and mixed cake.

No. 9—Mrs. C. Gram, by Miss N. H. Wilson, College Hill, two pans rolls and one loaf bread.

No. 10—Mrs. J. Canning, Fairmount, O., one pan rolls, one loaf bread, one jelly-cake.

No. 11—Mrs. M. W. Mathias, city, two loaves wheat bread.
No. 12—Mrs. Belle Welch, 107 Court street, one loaf brown bread.

No. 13—Mrs. Helen E. Johnson, city, one brown loaf.
No. 14—Miss Ashton, Bellevue, Ky., cup cake, salt-rising bread, yeast bread, sponge-cake and pound-cake.

No. 15—Miss A. Donnelly, Newport, Ky., one pan roll.
No. 16—Miss Fannie Maynard, 142 West Eighth street, one pan rolls.

No. 17—Mrs. M. H. Tower, 236 Richmond street, one loaf bread.
No. 18—Mrs. E. Hirsch, 217 Longworth street, sponge cake and loaf bread.

No. 19—Mrs. E. Brandt, 151 York street, Newport, two fancy cakes, three loaves brown bread, one loaf wheat bread.
No. 20—Lottie Krun, one loaf brown bread, one loaf wheat bread.

No. 21—Mrs. J. W. Shank, 426 George street, two loaves wheat bread.
No. 22—Eddie Harrell, two loaves wheat bread, one loaf brown bread, one pan rolls.

No. 23—Unknown, one fancy sponge cake.
No. 24—Mrs. J. Buckingham, city, sponge cake.

No. 25—Mrs. W. A. Goodman, East Walnut Hills, one dozen rolls.
No. 26—Mary Hopkins, city, bread and rolls.

No. 27—J. N. Hayes, city, corn bread and wheat bread.
No. 28—Mrs. O. Eggleston, Richmond street, salt rising bread.

No. 29—Mary Evans, bread.
No. 30—Mrs. Annie J. Rees, city, one loaf bread.

No. 31—Mrs. Annie F. Kinsey, one loaf bread.
The report of the Judges was as follows: First Premium—Silver fruit dish, for the best display of cakes and bread, Mrs. Robinson.

Second Premium—Barrel of patent flour, for the best pan of rolls, Mrs. Fannie Maynard. The following other awards have been made:

No. 47—Best Hominy Mill, to Coomb & Gray, Memphis, Ind., diploma of merit.
No. 48—Best Mill Picks, Richmond City Mill Works, first premium.

No. 49—Best Bag Holder, Kellman & Mesier, Chicago, first premium.
No. 50—Best attachment to prevent clogging of Bolting Cloths, Rathbun Bros., Rochester, New York, first premium.

No. 51—Best display of wire cloth, Howard & Morse, New York City, first premium.
No. 52—Best emery or corundum hand tool, Horace M. Deal, Bucyrus, O., first premium.

No. 53—Best mixing and sifting machine, M. Martin, Bitterfeld, Prussia, first premium.
No. 54—Best proof staff, Marshall, Graves & Co., Dayton, O., first premium.

No. 55—Best Millstone Dressing (machine power), N. Copelin, Cannon Falls, Minn., first premium.
No. 56—Three Rivers Manufacturing Co., Diploma of Merit.

No. 57—Best Millstone Dressing Machine (hand), Chas. Bowers & Co., Youngstown, Pa., first premium.
No. 58—John James, La Crosse, Wis.; Greencomb & Co., Thos. McFeeley, diploma of merit.

No. 59—Best barrel tally, W. N. Durant, Milwaukee, Wis., diploma of merit.
No. 60—Best Conveyer, H. W. Caldwell, St. Louis, Mo., diploma of merit.

No. 61—Best elevator bucket, W. J. Clark, Salem, O., first premium.
No. 62—The Everlasting Bucket Co., of Terre Haute, Ind., diploma of merit.

No. 63—Best millstone feeder, Fred. Klinkerman, Aurora, Ind., diploma of merit.

PAPER HANGING, &c.

Paper Hangings in largest variety; cheapest prices; best of workmanship at lowest figures, at MAYBERRY'S, 171 Main Street.

GILT DADO SHADES, 75 cts. each and upward, of beautiful designs and colors. New Brunswick Mfg. Co.'s Agency, MAYBERRY BROS., Prop'rs, 171 Main St., Cincinnati, O.

RUSSIA SALVE.

What a Distinguished Merchant Thinks of It.

New York, August 9, 1879. Messrs. Redding & Co.—Gentle in all kinds of wounds and inflammation of every kind, I consider your Russia Salve the best remedy I have ever used. I seldom ever use anything else in my house or stable. Respectfully yours, H. E. CLAFIN, Worth street, New York.

RUSSIA SALVE.

Best family salve in the world. Price 25c. per box and 50c. per lb. Use the 5 lb. size for animals. It is excellent for scratches, galls, &c. If your druggist has not the 5 lb. size, ask him to get it for you.

REDDING & CO.,
4 Chancery street, Boston, Massachusetts.

PICNIC.

DON'T FORGET

WM. PENN LODGE

PICNIC

TO-MORROW, JUNE 16th.
The elegant steamer THOMAS SHERRICK has been chartered for the day. Come and have a good time. Tickets, 50c; children under 12, free. Boat leaves foot of Main street at 7:30 and foot of Fifth street at 8:45 o'clock a. m.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Steal Away! Steal Away!"

AND GO.

THE ORIGINAL

FISK JUBILEE SINGERS

RETURNING, WILL GIVE

3 MOST ATTRACTIVE

And Unequaled Entertainments,

AT THE

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH,

June 22d, 23d and 24th.

Twenty-five cents admission. "The party pos- sible rich and powerful voices."—[Leeds Mercury.]

HIGHLAND HOUSE.

O'Leary Tournament!

Six days, 12 hours daily, heel and toe. Third race of the Heel-and-Toe Series, SECOND DAY, at 11 a. m., and ending WEDNESDAY, June 16, for prizes of $1,600.

Exhibition afternoon and evening by O'Leary's American Team, Hart and Dobler.

Round trip tickets to Highland House, 15c, to be had of conductors.

PRICE'S HILL HOUSE.